Code of Conduct - Parents & Spectators

Parents & Spectators have a great influence on a child's enjoyment and success in football. All children play football because they first and foremost love the game – it's fun. It is important to remember that however good a child becomes at football within our club, you as parents and spectators have a very important role to play and that your positive encouragement will contribute to:

- Children enjoying football.
- A sense of personal achievement.
- Self-esteem.
- Improving the child's skills and techniques.

Parent's and spectator's expectations and attitudes have a significant bearing on a child's attitude towards:

- Other players.
- Officials.
- Managers.
- Spectators.

Lillington Juniors FC expect that parents / spectators within our club are always positive, giving encouragement towards ALL of the children, not just their own.

We encourage parents / spectators to:

- Applaud the opposition as well as your own team.
- Avoid coaching the child during the game.
- Not to shout and scream.
- Respect the referee's decision.
- Give attention to each of the children involved in football not just the most talented.
- Give encouragement to everyone to participate in football.

Lillington Juniors FC expect ALL parents and spectators to acknowledge and adhere to this 'Code of Conduct'.

Failure to adhere to this Code of Conduct, and therefore not maintaining a safe and enjoyable environment for the young players, could result in the parent/spectator being suspended from attending matches and/or coaching sessions.

Code of Conduct - Coaches

Coaches are the key to the ethics of football. Their concept and their attitude directly affect the behaviour of players under their supervision. Coaches are, therefore, expected to pay particular care to the moral aspect of their conduct.

Coaches have to be aware that almost all of their everyday decisions and choices of actions, as well as strategic targets, have ethical implications.

It is natural that winning constitutes a basic concern for coaches. This code is not intended to conflict with that. However, the code calls for coaches to disassociate themselves from a "win-at-all-costs" attitude.

The Lillington Juniors FC ethos is clear; coaches must not select players based on ability and they should allow all players to take part in training sessions and matches regardless of ability. Coaches will not, until U16s+, hold trials for their team and will welcome all players if the team has space.

Increased responsibility is requested from coaches involved in coaching young people. The health, safety, welfare and moral education of young people are a first priority, before the achievement or the reputation of the club, parent or coach.

Set out below is Lillington Juniors' FC Code of Conduct, which forms the benchmark for all involved in coaching:

1. Coaches must always promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play) and never condone violations of the Laws of the Game, behaviour contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant rules and regulations or the use of prohibited substances or techniques.
2. Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of the sport.
3. Coaches must place the well-being and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of performance.
4. Coaches must not select players based on ability and they should follow the Club's ethos.
5. Coaches must allow all players in the team the opportunity to play matches and attend training sessions.
6. Coaches must develop a good working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect.
7. Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.
8. Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of players.
9. Coaches should, at the outset, clarify with the players (and, where appropriate, parent) exactly what is expected of them and also what they are entitled to expect from their coach.
10. Coaches must co-operate fully with other specialists (e.g. other coaches, officials, sports scientists, doctors, physiotherapists) in the best interests of the player.
11. Coaches must consistently display high standards of behaviour.
12. Coaches must not use or tolerate inappropriate language.
